1. General Overview

1.1 Description of Cooperative

Educational & Institutional Cooperative Services, Inc. (E&I) is the sole cooperative service focused on serving the education sector. E&I is a member owned New York non-profit corporation established in 1934 and is governed by a Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is a group of professionals who are elected by the E&I Membership. The Board provides oversight to ensure the Members' needs are addressed and met. Our Membership is comprised of public and private universities and colleges, community colleges, other affiliated members, K-12, and teaching healthcare facilities throughout the United States.

Our mission is to assist our members in creating supply-chain efficiencies, lowering costs and reducing risks by collaborating with our members, suppliers and strategic partners. We deliver exceptional value to higher education, K-12 and related communities by making it easy for them to access high-quality contracts, strategic sourcing expertise, insights and unrivaled customer service.

1.2 Purpose and Intent of the Request for Proposal (RFP)

The purpose of this RFP is to establish cost-effective Master Agreement(s) ("Agreement") for Accounts Payable Management, Automation, and Optimization Solutions. Components to these solutions may include but are not limited to Vendor Master Data Management, Vendor Onboarding, Invoice Capture, Accounts Payable Automation, Electronic Payments, Accounts Payable Approvals, and Fraud Detection and Prevention. Respondents are not expected to be able to provide all of the solution components identified within this RFP, and therefore, may provide a response for one or more of these components at their discretion.

Any resulting Master Agreements from this RFP will comply with our Member procurement requirements and will provide E&I Members a procurement vehicle to acquire the products and/or services outlined within this RFP. All E&I Members will be eligible to participate in the resulting agreement(s).

Products and/or services considered for award shall equal or exceed the quality level of industry standards as defined within this RFP and shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local technical, environmental, and performance standards and specifications.

Direct involvement by the awarded Respondent may be necessary to assist Members in understanding the different types of products/services available and in selecting the best solution to fit their needs.

E&I is committed to utilizing purchasing and business practices in accordance with the National Association of Educational Procurement Code of Ethics. The primary goals and objectives of E&I are to: (1) assist our Members to obtain the absolute lowest cost and best value that exceeds other public sector consortia agreements, (2) establish a strategic sourcing partnership with any selected manufacturer(s) and authorized dealers, and (3) enhance our position as the premier Procurement Cooperative for Education.

1.3 Market Opportunity

By satisfying the above Member needs, the Cooperative anticipates significant Member purchases to be recorded against the resulting Agreement(s). The Cooperative currently has over 6,000 Members, comprised of approximately 62% public and 38% private schools. K-12 school districts, academic healthcare and research institutions are eligible for membership in E&I. The Cooperative's expectations are a substantial opportunity for growth (in terms of Member purchases) with competitively awarded Agreement(s) in these markets.

1.4 Member Participation

Once the awarded Respondent has been established and the Agreement finalized, individual E&I Members (in some situations Member departments) will review the awarded Respondent's program and determine their individual participation. See Section XV. of E&I's Master Agreement Template General Terms and Conditions for specific details on how members participate in awarded Respondent's program. The awarded Respondent's program includes the Agreement along with additional supporting materials (if any) developed by the awarded Respondent.

Upon award of a Master Agreement from this RFP, the Respondent shall be provided an electronic file listing of E&I Members. Updated versions will be sent as needed. E&I will post the awarded Respondent’s program on the E&I internal web site which is password protected and only available to E&I Members.

Membership in E&I should not be construed as any form of commitment to the Agreement by a member. No representation is made that any quantities will be purchased or that services will be utilized.

In addition, Supplier shall indicate on its Report of Sales if, with respect to any Member, there is a variation in pricing established in conjunction with the Master Agreement pursuant to a Member-Specific Agreement or other agreement with Member for purchases (for both products and services) under the Master Agreement.

The Report of Sales is due no later than ten ([[Number of Days VRF Due Past Period End]]) days following Month End. All reports shall be sent via e-mail in the required format to vrf@candi.org, [[Contract Managers]], and [[Business Partnerships Manager]] (Insert Contract Manager/BPM email address), or as otherwise directed by E&I to submit such reports (e.g. through an E&I portal). E&I will communicate any change to the way in which Reports of Sales should be submitted reasonably in advance of such change.

All sales, regardless of method, shall be included in the total report of total U.S. dollar sales by Member. Regarding the Report of Sales and the Contract Administrative and Marketing Fee below, the effective date of reporting/submission shall be the date of Alignment as defined in the Master Agreement.

The Supplier shall notify E&I when a change in personnel responsible for submitting, calculating, or otherwise managing the Report of Sales and/or corresponding Contract Administrative and Marketing Fee is made and provide updated contact information using the same email addresses, or other email addresses as may be communicated to Supplier by E&I, as indicated above, or as otherwise directed by E&I to communicate such personnel changes.

In addition, Supplier agrees, upon request, to provide to E&I a complete list of all Members currently utilizing, or Members that at any point during the term of the Agreement utilized, the Master Agreement.

II. Contract Administrative and Marketing Fee (CAF)

The Supplier shall provide to E&I a Contract Administrative and Marketing Fee (“CAF”) of [[CAF Rate]]% of total invoice price for all purchases and/or orders placed by Members, including their divisions, subsidiaries, and affiliates, under this Agreement. Supplier's use of a third-party to deliver or provide part or portion of the products and/or services covered under the Agreement does not negate Supplier's responsibility to identify and remit CAF on such products and/or services. The CAF shall be calculated monthly and include all sales invoiced during the prior month, as per the corresponding Report of Sales. The CAF rate shall remain firm for the Agreement Initial Term, including Renewal Term(s), regardless of any and all pricing methods utilized by the Member, special quoted pricing, all services including value added services, and/or use of Supplier Diversity programs. Supplier shall not charge Members more than permitted in the then-current price list in order, or in an attempt, to offset the CAF or any administration or similar fee Supplier pays to a state procurement office/division.

The CAF shall be transmitted via EFT to E&I no later than forty-five ([[Number of Days CAF Due Past Period End]]) days following Month End. Failure to submit the CAF as specified shall result an interest charge of 1½% per month levied upon Supplier until the CAF is paid in full.

III. Cash Discounts and Rebates

Any and all cash discounts/rebates shall have no effect on the reporting and payment of the Contract Administrative and Marketing Fee. In addition, all cash discount/rebate activity shall be reported to E&I. If Supplier proposes that E&I distribute rebate payments directly to its Members, Supplier shall provide E&I with a rebate activity report that separates Member rebate payments from Contract Administrative and Marketing Fee payments.

IV. Failure to Submit Report of Sales or Pay CAF

In addition to the interest charge identified in II. above, Supplier's failure to submit the CAF and/or Report of Sales when due shall constitute grounds for E&I's termination of the Master Agreement as a material breach. In addition, failure to submit the CAF and/or Report of Sales when due may cause Supplier's proposal to be rejected in any subsequent solicitation or request for proposal issued by E&I, in E&I's sole discretion.

In accordance with the holdover clause included in the Master Agreement, Supplier shall continue to submit the CAF and supporting Report of Sales for the duration of the Holdover Period.

V. Report of Sales and CAF in the Event of Termination

In the event of termination of the Master Agreement, Supplier shall remain liable to E&I for all CAF owing up to and including the effective termination date of the Master Agreement and any active Member-Specific Agreements or other agreement with Member for purchases under the Master Agreement through the Holdover Period. If Supplier agreed to an annual minimum sales volume commitment/guarantee and the CAF on actual sales up to and including the effective termination date of the Master Agreement is less than the guaranteed CAF, Supplier shall be liable to pay E&I the guaranteed CAF on a prorated basis from the beginning of the annual period specified herein up to and including the effective termination date of the Master Agreement.

VI. Agreement Audit

E&I may, at any time during the term of this Agreement and for a period of three (3) years after the receipt of the last Report of Sales and payment of CAF covering the period through the date of termination, audit the Supplier's records pertaining to its compliance with the terms of this Agreement. An audit may be scheduled or announced by providing the Supplier a minimum of ten (10) business days' advance written notice. Every effort will be made to arrange a mutually convenient time for the audit but in no event shall an audit be delayed more than twenty (20) business days from the date of notice, unless agreed to by E&I in its sole discretion. The audit will be conducted by E&I and/or its designee. Supplier will provide E&I with access to all records needed for E&I to perform the audit, including all sales records and access to Member data and information, as well as a complete list of all Members currently utilizing, or Members that at any point during the term of the Master Agreement utilized, the Master Agreement, and sufficient workspace if E&I will be on-site to facilitate an audit. E&I's audit may include, but is not limited to, product compliance, Member pricing, order processing, order fulfillment, delivery, terms and conditions, invoicing, rebate calculations where applicable, accuracy and timeliness of submitted Reports of Sales and the related CAF, and any other reports or payments required under the terms of the Master and Supplemental Agreements.

Any deficiencies or errors related to payments required under the terms of the Master and Supplement Agreements shall be corrected as soon as reasonably possible by Supplier, but in any event, no later than forty-five (45) days following Supplier's receipt of notice from E&I regarding such deficiencies and/or errors. If the discrepancy is greater than 5% from amounts reported, the cost of the audit shall be paid by the Supplier and Supplier shall cooperate in a detailed or larger scope audit at E&I's sole discretion. Other deficiencies or errors may be handled pursuant to Section IX, Issue Resolution, below.

VII. Issue Resolution

In the event of general, non-material issues related to noncompliance or nonperformance, the Parties shall agree to a Corrective Action Plan ("CAP") prior to exercising other available remedies. The CAP is to be used to enhance the E&I and Supplier relationship and is the basis for written assurance that the original conditions that caused or allowed noncompliance and/or nonperformance will be, or have been, remedied. Accordingly, the Party raising the issue of noncompliance and/or nonperformance shall prepare a CAP, in consultation with the other Party, to address all issues related to noncompliance and/or nonperformance, internal control weaknesses, reportable conditions disclosed in an applicable audit report, or issues identified based on Member feedback. For each issue noted, the CAP shall include, but not be limited to: (1) a brief description identifying the issues and/or findings; (2) the specific steps to be taken to correct the deficiency and/or issue(s); (3) a timetable for completion of the corrective action steps; (4) a description of monitoring (if applicable) to be performed to ensure that the steps are taken; and (5) the responsible party for CAP activities. Should either Party fail to comply with the CAP (“Non-compliant Party”), and following a mutually-agreed upon time to comply following notice from the other Party (“Affected Party”) of such failure, the Affected Party may terminate the Master Agreement and shall provide notice of the same to the Non-compliant Party.

Either Party shall have the ability to terminate the Master Agreement for material breach of the Master Agreement and/or the Supplemental Agreement without first entering into a CAP with the other Party.

- a. Initial and Renewal Term. The Agreement’s initial term shall be for <insert number of years> (x) years (“Initial Term”), effective [[Start Date]] through [[End Date]], and may be renewed for a renewal term not to exceed <insert number of years> (x) years (“Renewal Term”), which may be structured in one or multi-year terms not to exceed the overall Renewal Term. Prior to the end of the Initial Term, and for each successive Renewal Term, the Agreement will be evaluated in overall context and performance. Exercise of any Renewal Term will require formal written agreement between E&I and Supplier at least six (6) months prior to Agreement expiration. Supplier acknowledges that notification and/or agreement to exercise a Renewal Term may be required further in advance based on Member state regulations and/or other state-specific requirements.
- b. Termination for Convenience. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for any reason by delivering not less than one hundred eighty (180) calendar days’ prior written notice thereof to the other Party.

Should the breaching party fail to cure the breach within the Cure Period, the non-breaching party shall then have the right to terminate this Agreement at the end of the Cure Period. A notice shall be sent to the breaching party to confirm the termination. - a. Pricing/Discount List. The pricing/discount percentage for the Products and/or Services as listed on Exhibit A, incorporated herein by reference, shall be applicable to all purchases made and Services Utilized pursuant to this Agreement for the Initial Term of the Agreement and any Renewal Term(s) thereafter, unless amended in writing by the Parties.
- b. Taxes. All prices listed and discounts offered pursuant to this Agreement are exclusive of all taxes. E&I is a non-profit corporation. Members may have varying requirements to pay taxes or may be exempt from state sales tax. As applicable, Supplier shall collect all taxes in connection with the sale, delivery, or use of any items, Products, or the Services included herein from Member or from E&I (if for the purpose of resale), at the taxable rate in effect at the time of invoicing. Supplier shall comply with the state sales tax requirements of each Member. If sales to Member are exempt from such taxes, Member shall furnish to Supplier a certificate of exemption in form and timeliness acceptable to the applicable taxing authority.
- c. Firm Pricing. Prices shall remain firm for at least the first twenty-four (24) months of the Agreement’s Initial Term unless improved for the benefit of Members. However, Supplier is authorized to offer Members enhanced pricing on a case-by-case basis or under a Member-Specific Agreement. Any variances in pricing for Members shall be reported to E&I’s applicable Sourcing Manager, and Supplier agrees to provide to E&I a copy of the Member-Specific Agreement upon its execution, or otherwise upon E&I’s request, unless Member’s policies prohibit the disclosure of such Member-Specific Agreement. If disclosure of the Member-Specific Agreement is prohibited by Member’s policies, Supplier shall still provide to E&I the relevant information related to the pricing variance(s).
- d. Price Increase and Discount Change Requests. Supplier agrees that it will make every reasonable attempt to keep the pricing and discounts indicated in Exhibit A firm throughout the term of the Agreement. However, after the first twenty-four (24) months of the Agreement Initial Term, the Supplier may request updates or changes to pricing and/or discounts in an amount not to exceed appropriate price index or other agreed-upon cap. Any requested update or change to pricing that will result in increased costs to the Member, or an update or change to a discount that will be less favorable to the Member, must be accompanied by (i) a complete and detailed justification for the request, including the reason(s) for the increased cost of providing the Products and/or Services; (ii) supporting documentation, which includes the specific costs that have increased that substantiate the increase (as applicable, this may include a manufacturer’s national price increase announcement letter, specific raw materials increase, index data, etc.); and (iii) the attempts Supplier has made to keep the pricing firm or otherwise as low as possible. Supplier must respond to E&I’s inquiries related to such a request. With any price increase request, the Supplier must certify in writing that the price change request meets the criteria in the Education/Pricing Parity provision herein.

Price increases and any change to a discount must be approved by E&I, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld so long as Supplier submits the requisite justification for the request in accordance with this section, no less than ninety (90) days in advance of the desired effective date for the change and/or discount to allow for proper communication to Members, and it must be memorialized in writing and signed by both parties as an amendment to this Agreement. A price increase or discount change request shall not be made more than once in a twelve (12) month period. If a subsequent request is made to update or change pricing and/or discounts within a twelve (12) month period, it will be denied.

Supplier agrees that if at any point following E&I’s approval of a price increase Supplier’s cost to provide the Products or Services decreases, Supplier shall execute an amendment to this Agreement to reduce the cost of the Products or Services to Member, to maintain Supplier’s same profit margin.

- e. Education/Pricing Parity. The pricing and/or discounts established under this Agreement are to be equal to or less than those offered by Supplier to other cooperatives, comparable consortiums, or group purchasing organizations serving education. This provision is not applicable to Member-specific pricing agreed upon between the Supplier and Member, including as may be established pursuant to a Member-Specific Agreement. If, during the Initial Term of this Agreement, including any Renewal Terms, Supplier offers more favorable pricing and/or discounts for the Services to other cooperatives, comparable consortiums, or group purchasing organizations serving education, Supplier agrees to notify E&I in writing without delay, but in any event, no later than ninety (90) days prior to the implementation of any such pricing or agreement with another cooperative, comparable consortium, or group purchasing organization serving education. Supplier agrees to execute an amendment to this Agreement, including as applicable to any Renewal Terms, to reflect the more favorable pricing and/or discounts.

- f. Price Gouging Prohibited. Supplier shall not sell Products or Services which are vital and necessary for the health, safety, and/or welfare of consumers to a Member during a declared state of emergency at a price that is in excess of ten percent (10%) above the price that existed immediately prior to the declaration. A violation of this paragraph shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and Supplier shall make prompt restitution to Member of the excessive amount charged. A declared state of emergency means, for the purposes of this Agreement, a circumstance in which government officials determine that there is a threat to the health and/or safety of the citizens of the United States or region thereof. During such a time, officials may implement procedures to protect or provide care for the affected population until the threat has diminished.

IV. Member-Specific Agreement

- a. Agreement with Supplier. Member and Supplier may enter into a separate Member-Specific Agreement (“Member-Specific Agreement” or “MSA”), which may include or insert name of Supplier’s template MSA and reference as Exhibit D, to further define the level of service requirements over and above the minimum defined in this Agreement, e.g., specific scope of work, invoice requirements, ordering requirements, on-campus service, specialized delivery, etc. Any MSA developed is exclusively between the Member and Supplier.
- b. Copy to E&I. Supplier shall provide a copy of, and otherwise report as requested by E&I, any applicable MSA information to E&I, which information shall include without limitation: pricing variation, start/end dates, etc. If disclosure of the MSA is prohibited by Member’s policies, Supplier shall still provide to E&I the relevant information related to the pricing variance(s). E&I’s efforts to assist Member with any pricing variance issues may be limited if such full and complete information is not shared.

V. Services or Product Specific Terms

Services and/or product specific terms applicable to this Agreement are included as Exhibit B, which is incorporated herein by reference.

VI. Terms and Conditions of Agreement

- a. Order of Precedence. Unless otherwise superseded by the terms and conditions of the contracting Member, the terms and conditions contained herein shall apply to all purchases made and the Services provided under this Agreement. Any of Supplier’s terms and conditions, including terms and conditions of the Supplier’s service agreement, order form, invoice, acknowledgment, purchase order, Member-Specific Agreement, or similar form or agreement which are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall have no effect, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply.
- b. No Waiver/Modification. No waiver or modification of any of the provisions hereof shall be binding unless mutually agreed upon by E&I and the Supplier, in writing, with signatures of authorized representatives of both Parties authorizing said modification.

VII. Compliance with Laws and Regulations; Open Records

- a. Compliance with Applicable Laws. Supplier warrants and represents that in the performance of this Agreement, it has complied with, and will continue to comply with, all applicable federal, state, and local laws, statutes, rules, regulations, ordinances, and orders (collectively, “Laws and Regulations”). This includes, but is not limited to, the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 in both its present form and any future requirements passed under the Act; all applicable Laws and Regulations related to labor, hours, and wages; and any industry-specific Laws and Regulations related to Supplier’s provision of the Products and Services provided pursuant to this Agreement.
- b. FAR and EDGAR. Where federal contracts or grants provide funding to Members used for orders or purchases made under this Agreement, it is the responsibility of the Supplier and the Member to comply with all Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) and Educational Department General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR) and other applicable laws and regulations by completing any certifications, disclosures, and any other requirements. E&I shall not be responsible for ensuring compliance with such standards, rules, and/or regulations. Supplier certifies compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances as acknowledged in Exhibit C, Supplier’s response to RFP# XXXXXX EDGAR Certifications requirements.
- c. ADA. Supplier shall comply with all applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (“ADAAA”), and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (if applicable). All electronic and information technology, Products, and Services to be used by Member, including Member’s faculty, staff, students, program participants, or other constituencies, must be accessible and compliant with the ADA, the ADAAA, and Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (if applicable), including as such Acts may be amended.

- d. Open Records. All information, documentation, and other materials submitted by Supplier to E&I in response to the solicitation or under this Agreement, including the Agreement itself, and any information, documentation, and other materials shared by Supplier with Member, may be subject to public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act and/or state open records/access to public records laws of the Members.

VIII. Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination; Sexual Harassment

- a. Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination. In connection with the performance of Services and provision of Products, and in satisfying all obligations under this Agreement, Supplier agrees that it will comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, regulations, and executive orders governing equal employment opportunity, immigration, and non-discrimination, and will not discriminate against any Member, including its employees, or applicant for employment because of age, race, religion, color, disability, sex, sexual orientation, or national origin.
- b. Government Contracts. Except as otherwise provided under 41 CFR Part 60, all contracts that meet the definition of “federally assisted construction contract” in 41 CFR Part 60-1.3 must include the equal opportunity clause provided under 41 CFR 60-1.4(b), in accordance with Executive Order 11246, “Equal Employment Opportunity” (30 FR 12319, 12935, 3 CFR Part, 1964-1965 Comp., p. 339), as amended by Executive Order 11375, “Amending Executive Order 11246 Relating to Equal Employment Opportunity,” and implementing regulations at 41 CFR part 60, “Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, Equal Employment Opportunity, Department of Labor.” The provisions of Section 202 of Executive Order 11246.41 CFR 60-1.1 CFR 60-250.4 and 41 CFR 60-741.4 are incorporated herein by reference and shall be applicable to this Agreement unless this Agreement is exempted under the rules, regulations, or orders of the U.S. Secretary of Labor. If applicable, the Parties will abide by the requirements of 41 CFR 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex or national origin. Moreover, these regulations require that covered prime contractors and subcontractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, protected veteran status or disability.
- c. No Sexual Harassment. Federal law prohibits and protects individuals from discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment. E&I prohibits sexual harassment and works to foster an environment that is built on respect and free of sexual harassment. Supplier is required to abide by all federal, state, and local policies, regulations, and laws that pertain to sexual harassment and non-discrimination and to exercise control over its employees, agents, and subcontractors so as to prohibit acts of sexual harassment. If Supplier becomes aware, whether through Member or otherwise, that any employee, agent, or subcontractor of Supplier is alleged to have engaged in sexual harassment, in addition to any action that Member may take pursuant to its policies and/or procedures, Supplier agrees to cause such person to be removed from Member's facility or from otherwise engaging with Member, including those who may be associated with Member (e.g. staff, students); to follow its own policies and procedures for investigating and resolving such allegations; and to take such other action as may be reasonably necessary to cause the sexual harassment to cease.

IX. Use of Name, Logos, and Other Licensed or Trademarked Material

- a. Supplier's Use of Member's Material. Supplier agrees not to use the name or logo of any Member, including in any advertising, publicity, promotional, and/or marketing materials of any kind, related to this Agreement without the express written permission of the Member and in accordance with Member's policies and/or procedures relating to the use of any licensed or trademarked material, including names and logos.
- b. Parties' Use of Material. E&I and the Supplier agree not to use the name or logo of the other Party, including in any advertising, publicity, promotional, and/or marketing materials of any kind, without the express written permission of the other Party. The use of the other Party's name and/or logo must be in the exact form and format provided and approved by that Party. The Parties agree that they shall not alter or otherwise modify the name or logo of the other Party. A request for any new or different use of the other Party's logo, or other licensed or trademarked material of the other Party, must be submitted in advance to that Party for approval. Supplier further agrees that it shall not express or imply any endorsement of its products or services, including the Products and Services covered under this Agreement, by E&I or any Member without express written consent from the relevant Party, and that it shall not seek endorsement in contravention of any applicable law, rule, or regulation.
- c. Supplier Warranty & Liability. Supplier warrants that it has the right to license all rights to the Products and/or Services hereby sold or provided, either alone or in combination with other materials; that such rights do not infringe upon or violate any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, application, or any other proprietary right of any third party existing under laws of the United States or any foreign country; and that Supplier has obtained all necessary permissions from third parties to license the rights, if applicable. Supplier agrees, at its own expense, to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless E&I, including its officers, agents, and employees, Members, and any other third party to whom E&I might be liable, from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, losses, expenses, or judgments, including reasonable attorneys' fees, alleging such infringements or otherwise arising out of a breach of this provision. No limitation of liability set forth elsewhere in this Agreement is applicable to this indemnification, and this indemnity shall survive termination of this Agreement.

X. Transactions and Engagements Between Supplier and Member.

- a. Transactions/Engagements. The purchase of Products and/or Services by a Member from Supplier is a transaction or engagement solely between Member and Supplier. Supplier acknowledges and agrees that E&I makes no representation or commitment that any Member will make a purchase, that any quantities will be purchased, or that Services will be utilized, whether by an individual Member or by Members collectively, and agrees that E&I shall have no liability relating to Member decisions to purchase or not purchase Supplier Products or Services.
- b. E&I Not a Party to Litigation. Supplier agrees that if litigation arises between Supplier and any Member, including as related to a breach of any Member-Specific Agreement or other agreement between Supplier and Member, Supplier shall not make or name E&I, its agents, or employees a party to that litigation. A violation of this provision by Supplier shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement warranting termination by E&I, and Supplier agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless E&I, including its officers, agents, employees, and assigns from and against all costs, demands, expenses, and losses associated with such litigation, including reasonable legal and attorney fees.

XI. Governing Law

- a. Between Member and Supplier. For disputes between the Member and Supplier, this Agreement and any Member-Specific Agreement shall be governed by, construed, interpreted, and enforced solely in accordance with and pursuant to the internal laws of the state in which the Member resides, without regard to choice of law rules, and the venue of any action shall lie in such state.

Supplier, at the request of Member, shall undertake to participate fully in the defense of Member against any and all suits and to investigate and participate fully in the defense of Member against any and all claims, whether justified or not, if such claim or suit is commenced against or Member or its respective officers, agents, servants, and employees. Supplier, including its employees and subcontractors, shall conduct themselves in a businesslike and professional manner and comply with all applicable Member requests, policies, and rules pertaining to their presence, behavior, and conduct while on Member's campus, as well as Member owned, controlled, or leased property (including all land and buildings), including with respect to the prohibition, use, or possession of alcohol, tobacco, controlled substances, and other drugs; the possession, display, use, or storage of any weapon, explosive device, fireworks, or other item or substance prohibited pursuant to Member's policies or law; and other policies related to campus safety, including the wearing of an identification badge and other security practices or procedures. If requested by Member, Supplier shall have all applicable Supplier personnel execute acknowledgement of Member's conduct expectations as related to their work, behavior, and/or presence at Member's institution and its premises, as well as other applicable policies. The Member reserves the right to immediately remove from their premises, and to request the removal or replacement of, any of Supplier's employees and/or subcontractors who violate its policies, rules, or other instructions at any time. In addition, E&I and the Member reserve the right to request a copy of the Supplier's Drug Free Workplace Policy.
- b. Supplier agrees to notify all persons or entities who are employees, agents, officers, subcontractors, consultants, guests, invitees, or licensees of Supplier ("Supplier Notification Parties") of the responsibilities and restrictions contained in this Section, and Supplier agrees to include a similar provision indicating the same in any contract with a subcontractor related to the performance of this Agreement. Supplier further agrees to enforce this requirement against all Supplier Notification Parties.
- c. At any time during the term of the Agreement, a Member may require Supplier to provide a complete dossier, or other information as may be requested by Member, of each employee who has been given an assignment at a Member institution so that Member can ensure compliance with applicable public safety or other policies related to those present on its campus or property or performing Services under this Agreement.

XIV. Protection of Member's Property

The Supplier shall take care not to damage the premises or the property of others, including that of any Member, and in case such damage occurs as the result of Supplier's, and/or any of Supplier's subcontractors, operations or performance, including the Services, under this Agreement, Supplier shall make appropriate, reasonable restitution. If the Supplier fails to pay for damage, in addition to any legal remedies available, the amount of such damage may be deducted from any remaining balance due to the Supplier and/or Member may delay payment on any outstanding balances until a resolution has been reached regarding such damage.

XV. Member Alignment Process & Alignment Form

- a. When an E&I Member chooses to align to the Agreement, the Member will complete E&I's online form indicating their desire to purchase Products and/or Services offered under this Agreement ("Alignment Form"). Supplier (“Alignment;” the effective date for this action is the date the Member submits the Alignment Form); provide Member a confirmation email message within 24 hours of completed Alignment; and submit confirmation of completed Alignment to E&I using E&I’s Supplier Portal. For the avoidance of doubt, applicable SOW and/or MSA execution or finalization is not required for Alignment to be complete.

- d. Notwithstanding the forgoing, any Members who are existing, previously-aligned customers of an incumbent Supplier will automatically be converted from the expiring agreement to which they were aligned to this Agreement without a new Alignment, unless the Member elects to opt out through written notification to E&I and Supplier. Supplier shall also notify the applicable E&I Sourcing Manager upon notification by the Member that the Member does not want to align to the Agreement. The effective date of this automatic conversion shall be the effective date of this Agreement.
- e. In the event the Supplier has a direct agreement (“direct agreement” is defined as an agreement with the Member that is not an E&I agreement) with a Member, the Supplier shall encourage the Member to align to this Agreement at the next renewal or termination of the direct agreement.
- f. Supplier is responsible for working with Member to ensure all accounts, as specified by Member, are aligned to this Agreement. Should Supplier fail to correctly align such accounts, Supplier shall be solely liable for any resulting damages, demands, claims, losses, or expenses incurred by Member, including all such amounts as may result from Member’s payment for Services and/or Products at prices higher than they would have been had their account(s) been correctly aligned and/or Member’s failure to receive the correct discount pursuant to this Agreement. Supplier agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless E&I, including its officers, agents, and employees, and any other third party to whom E&I might be liable, from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, losses, expenses, or judgments, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, arising from Supplier’s failure to correctly align any Member account, including all accounts of any one Member, following Member’s submission of the Alignment Form.

XVI. Member Alignment Process (Statement of Intent)

The content and format of the Statement of Intent is at the sole discretion of E&I in collaboration with the Supplier. At a minimum, the Statement of Intent will contain the following fields: First Name, Last Name, Title, Institution Name, Department, Primary Role, Phone, E-mail, and Supplier. Supplier shall provide to E&I, and maintain, an email address and point of contact for the receipt of Statements of Intent.
- b. Upon receipt of the Statement of Intent Supplier shall: contact the Member within three (3) business days to determine the Member’s needs in order to complete alignment to the Agreement and initiate the scope of work.
- c. Once Member’s needs have been identified and the Member and Supplier have agreed upon the scope of work, the Supplier shall: align all relevant Member accounts to the Agreement within seven (7) business days; credit the purchase to Member (“Alignment”; the effective date for this action is the date any such purchase(s) is/are credited); provide Member a confirmation email message within 24 hours of completed Alignment; and submit confirmation of completed Alignment to E&I using E&I’s Supplier Portal. For the avoidance of doubt, applicable SOW and/or MSA execution or finalization is not required for Alignment to be complete.

- c. FERPA. Student education records are protected by the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and its implementing regulations, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, 34 C.F.R. § 99.1 et seq. (“FERPA”). Should Supplier receive or have access to any student education records in the performance of its Services or other obligations under this Agreement, Supplier agrees:
1. That it shall protect the confidentiality of student education records, including personally identifiable information found in such records, in compliance with FERPA (“FERPA-protected records”);
 2. That any FERPA-protected records may only be used for the purposes authorized by the Member and within the course and scope of performing Supplier’s Services or obligations under this Agreement and any corresponding MSA;
 3. That Supplier will not access or make any disclosures of FERPA-protected records, whether provided by Member or obtained on Member’s behalf, to third parties without prior notice to and written consent from Member; and
 4. That Member may require transparency about how student data obtained or collected under this Agreement is used and/or Supplier’s plans for data security, which Supplier agrees it shall have in place based on commercially reasonable and accepted standards, how Supplier will notify Member of any data breach involving FERPA-protected records, and how Supplier will maintain the confidentiality of FERPA-protected records (including personally identifiable information).
- d. In the event of a data breach, Supplier agrees to notify the affected party or parties, including E&I and/or Member as applicable (collectively, the “Affected Parties”), in accordance with any applicable law and regulations governing Supplier’s notification requirements, and to cooperate with the Affected Parties with respect to any investigation into the breach, Affected Parties’ notification or other subsequent requirements, and as related to any remedial measures.

XVIII. Confidentiality

- a. Confidential Information. In the course of performing their respective obligations under this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge that each Party and their employees may come into the possession of proprietary or confidential information owned by or in the possession of the other Party (in such a case, the “Receiving Party”). Neither Party will share, disclose, or use any such information for its own benefit or make such information available to any third party, firm, corporation, or other organizations, whether or not directly or indirectly affiliated with either Party, without the written consent of the Party who owns or possesses the proprietary or confidential information (“Disclosing Party”) or unless required by law, regulation, or accounting oversight body in accordance with the process identified in (b) below.
1. Definition. “Confidential Information” means information and data, including hard copy or electronic form, written or oral, which a reasonable person would consider to be confidential in nature based on the circumstances of the disclosure, or based on applicable state and/or federal laws related to the disclosure of such information or data, as well as information designated at the time of disclosure as confidential by the Disclosing Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information shall not include any reports or other information required to be provided or reported to E&I pursuant to this Agreement.
 2. Exceptions. Confidential Information does not include information that (1) becomes public through no breach of this Agreement by Receiving Party; (2) Receiving Party lawfully receives from a third party without restriction; (3) Receiving Party develops independently without use of or reference to Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information, as shown by then-contemporaneous records kept in the ordinary course of business, or already had knowledge of prior to disclosure by Disclosing Party; and (4) Disclosing Party gives to any third party without confidentiality limitations. The Parties’ obligations under this section will survive the termination of this Agreement for a period of three (3) years, except as related to trade secrets, which protection shall continue in perpetuity or for so long as such Confidential Information remains a trade secret.
 3. Obligations. The Parties agree that Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information shall not be shared or disclosed, except to those employees of Receiving Party who have a need to know based on the course and scope of their employment with Receiving Party and as related to the performance of this Agreement. The Parties further agree that any Confidential Information provided pursuant to this Agreement shall only be used for the purpose of performing their obligations and responsibilities hereunder, and shall be held in confidence and protected with no less than the same degree of care in which each Party protects their own Confidential Information.
- b. Response to Legal Process. In the event the Receiving Party or any of Receiving Party’s representatives is requested, pursuant to subpoena or other lawful demand, or by an accounting oversight body, to disclose any of the Confidential Information, the Receiving Party shall provide the Disclosing Party prompt written notice so that the Disclosing Party may seek a protective order or other legal remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event such

Many Members are publicly funded institutions, and their ongoing financial obligations are subject to allocation of funds by parties not controlled by the Member. Accordingly, Services may be discontinued, and, if applicable, orders for Products may be cancelled, due to non-appropriation of funds, whether such non-appropriation is of state and/or federal funds. Member is responsible for notifying Supplier, consistent with its policies or other applicable requirements, of any non-appropriation of funds and the subsequent need to discontinue Services or cancel an order.

XXV. Conflicts of Interest and Non-Solicitation

- b. Assignments. Neither Party shall assign or delegate this Agreement or any of their rights or obligations hereunder, in whole or in part, including by transfer of stock or ownership, without the other Party's prior written consent and an executed agreement between the Parties regarding the same. Any purported assignment or delegation made without the other Party's prior written consent shall be void and of no effect.
- c. Strikes or Lockouts. In the event Supplier should become involved in a labor dispute, strike or lockout, Supplier will be required to make whatever arrangements may be necessary to ensure that the conditions of this Agreement are met in their entirety. Should the Supplier be unable to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, E&I and/or Member shall have the right to make alternative arrangements to ensure the satisfactory performance of the Agreement during the time Supplier is unable to perform. Any reasonable costs incurred by E&I and/or any Member as a result of such labor dispute, strike, or lockout shall be reimbursed by the Supplier. The performing party shall be released without any liability on its part from the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, but only to the extent and only for the period of time that its performance of such obligations is prevented by circumstances of Force Majeure, and that the party so affected shall use reasonable commercial efforts to avoid or remove such causes of nonperformance, and provided that such party shall have given notice to the other party within forty-eight (48) hours of the commencement of the event of Force Majeure. Such notice shall include a description of the nature of the event of Force Majeure, its cause, and its possible consequences, as well as the length of time the force majeure event is anticipated to last, if such time can be reasonably determined. - g. No Waiver and Strict Compliance. The failure of either Party to exercise its right to terminate for cause due to the other Party’s failure to perform as required in any instance shall not constitute a waiver of termination rights in any other instance. In addition, the failure of either Party to insist in any one or more instances upon the performance of any one or more provisions of the Agreement or to pursue any rights hereunder shall not be construed as a waiver of any such provisions or the relinquishment of any such rights. The Parties may at any time insist upon strict compliance with these terms and conditions, notwithstanding any previous custom, practice, or course of dealing to the contrary.
- h. Agreement Modification. This Agreement may not be modified unless in writing and signed by E&I and Supplier.
