

EdCast by Cornerstone Learning Experience Platform

Personalized growth in the flow of work

With EdCast by Cornerstone, you'll find a unified learning experience platform (LXP) to transform learning for your employees, partners, and customers. Your people can navigate and control their development in ways they never thought possible.

Your organization can use the LXP to empower people to drive their growth, share knowledge, learn from internal experts, and build a learning network. By enabling your people to learn fast in their moment of need while continuing to develop skills, your organization can engage and retain people, improve productivity, and accelerate innovation.

With EdCast by Cornerstone, you can deliver compelling development experiences to all your people across any context.

Personalized, collaborative skill development powered by AI and machine learning

Ensure each person has a unique, engaging experience as they continuously build skills to improve in their role and reach their goals when you:

STREAMLINE PROCESSES

- ✦ Aggregate all trusted sources of learning and knowledge, internal and external, for unified search and discovery
- ✦ Understand holistic learning trends and insights to increase effectiveness, realize cost savings and understand the supply and demand of skills across your organization
- ✦ Leverage a rich ontology of over 51,000 skills mapped from over 250 million profiles through Cornerstone Skills Graph

ENGAGE YOUR WORKFORCE

- ✦ Provide personalized learning and development, with manager coaching and access to internal expertise, powered by AI
- ✦ Democratize access to learning content creation and curation so people can learn from internal experts and peers
- ✦ Cultivate a continuous learning culture in the flow of work where people can quickly access both internal and external content in the apps they use most often at work and via a comprehensive mobile experience
- ✦ Empower your people to join and contribute to communities of practice and interest

We are creating 100,000 'trainers,' and that begins with seamlessly integrating and orienting them to our culture of continuous learning and contribution."

GROW THE ORGANIZATION

- ✦ Upskill employees to fill strategic skill gaps
- ✦ Elevate subject matter experts and thought leaders and capture their business-specific expertise
- ✦ Drive career development and internal mobility with Cornerstone Opportunity Marketplace

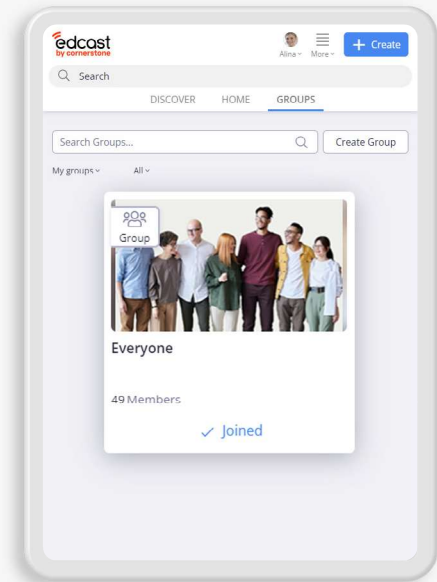

Provide the growth experience your people value

39% higher employee retention
